

VISITOR INFORMATION

About the Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron

The Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron is one of Australia's premier yacht clubs. The club has a proud history of involvement in sailing since its formation in 1862, including Americas Cups, Sydney to Hobart races, Admirals Cups, Kenwood Cups, the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games and a number of World Championships. Over the years, numerous Squadron members have been world champions and Olympians and have achieved other significant yachting accomplishments.

Located within walking distance of the Sydney Harbour Bridge, the Squadron boasts spectacular views of Sydney Harbour. The Opera House, CBD and many tourist attractions are also within minutes of the Club.

The RSY has a membership of approximately 3,500 members and an extensive racing program which includes the Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday Twilight Series', Saturday racing, Offshore Series, various Regattas and an active Youth Sailing Program of over 100 members.

Change Rooms and Showers

Both the men's and women's change room facilities are located downstairs, just above the Boatshed Office. These facilities have hot showers, toilets, lockers and a changing area. Individuals are urged to use the lockers in the change rooms for the storage of any personal items. Please be advised that you need to provide your own padlock and key.

Toilets

The men's toilets are located near the rear entrance to the clubhouse, near the Members Bar. Alternatively, there are toilets in the change room, which are located downstairs above the Boatshed Office.

The women's toilets are located behind the Neutral Bay Room in the clubhouse. Alternatively, there are toilets in the change room, which are located downstairs above the Boatshed Office.

Valuables

Competitors are discouraged from bringing valuables to the Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron. If necessary, teams are asked to use the lockers located in the change rooms. The RSY will not assume any responsibility for the loss, theft or damage of personal possessions.

Lost Property

Lost property cupboards are located under the washbasins in the male and female change rooms. All lost property will be tagged with the date it is found and if unclaimed within one month, will be donated to charity. All valuable items will be held at Reception.

Smoking

All areas of the clubhouse are smoke-free zones. Staff will not provide ashtrays. Receptacles for extinguishing cigarette butts are located at all entrances to the clubhouse.

Alcohol Consumption

Staff will not sell or supply alcohol to a person who appears to be under the age of 18 years, nor allow that person to consume alcohol upon the RSY premises. Staff will not serve alcohol to any person who appears to be intoxicated or affected by drugs or alcohol. The RSY encourages the responsible consumption of alcohol in moderation. Intoxicated, indecent or aggressive persons will be escorted from the premises.

RSYS Bar Facilities

The Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron has two bar facilities within the clubhouse. The Members Bar is located adjacent to the Carabella Room and on the same level as Reception. The Careening Cove Anchorage (CCA) Bar is located downstairs from the Members Bar with the adjoining terrace to sit and enjoy a drink and the magnificent harbour view.

Regatta and Team Food

For the regatta and team food please speak with club Functions Coordinator, Jessica O'Donnell jessica@rsys.com.au for orders. Please be aware 48 hours' notice will be required for all orders.

Cellar

The Cellar, located on the corridor leading to the CCA, stocks an extensive range of wines, spirits and beer, all of which are at very competitive prices. Bags of ice are also available for purchase from the boatshed. If the Cellar is unattended during 9am and 5pm, please use the intercom system, which will connect you to a barman who will process your order. After hours, items can be purchased from the CCA.

Public Transport Information

The Kirribilli / Milsons Point area is extremely well serviced by a variety of public transportation, including ferries, trains, buses and taxis/cabs. A selection of local public transport timetables has been included within the Team Welcome Pack for reference.

Should you have any public transport enquiries, call the State Transit Authority Information Service on 131 500. They will be able to answer any specific or general public transport questions for you.

Ferries

The Neutral Bay Ferry Service operates from the Kirribilli Wharf (one block from the RSY) and runs between Circular Quay, Kirribilli, Neutral Bay, returning to Circular Quay. Please refer to the timetables included in the Team Welcome Pack.

Trains

The North Shore train service operates from the Milsons Point Train Station (within walking distance of the RSY) and runs between the City Circle and the North Shore.

Buses

A variety of bus services operate from the Milsons Point / Kirribilli precinct.

Tourist Activities

Sydney is a vibrant city with a wide choice of exciting activities. Possible activities include a Bridge Climb (a tour across the Sydney Harbour Bridge), Art Gallery of NSW, National Maritime Museum, Sydney Aquarium, Taronga Zoo or a trip to Manly on the Manly Ferry from Circular Quay. For more specific details, please refer to the Tourism NSW information that has been included within the Team Welcome Pack.

Eating Out

Apart from the dining options offered by the Squadron, Sydney is renowned for its restaurant and café dining.

Local Area

Kirribilli has plenty of cafes and restaurants which are predominantly located at the foot of the Harbour Bridge near the Milsons Point train station. The variety ranges from take-away chicken, Asian, Italian and Modern Australian restaurants. There is also a bistro at the Kirribilli Pub.

City Area

The Rocks (located on the city side of the Harbour Bridge): this harbour front location includes Circular Quay, many pubs and some more exclusive restaurants.

Dixon Street, Chinatown (located between the CBD and Darling Harbour): this is the Asian dining centre of Sydney, which includes Noodle Bars, restaurants and Yum Cha.

Cockle Bay and Darling Harbour (located on the western side of the City): another waterfront location that has a wide variety of dining options including restaurants, take away, bars and other entertainment.

Victoria Street and Oxford Street, Darlinghurst (located to the east of the city): plenty of cafés and restaurants for dining and Clubs where you can party the night away.

Inner City Suburbs

King Street, Newtown (located in Sydney's Inner-Western suburbs): this café strip has a laid-back, alternative feel.

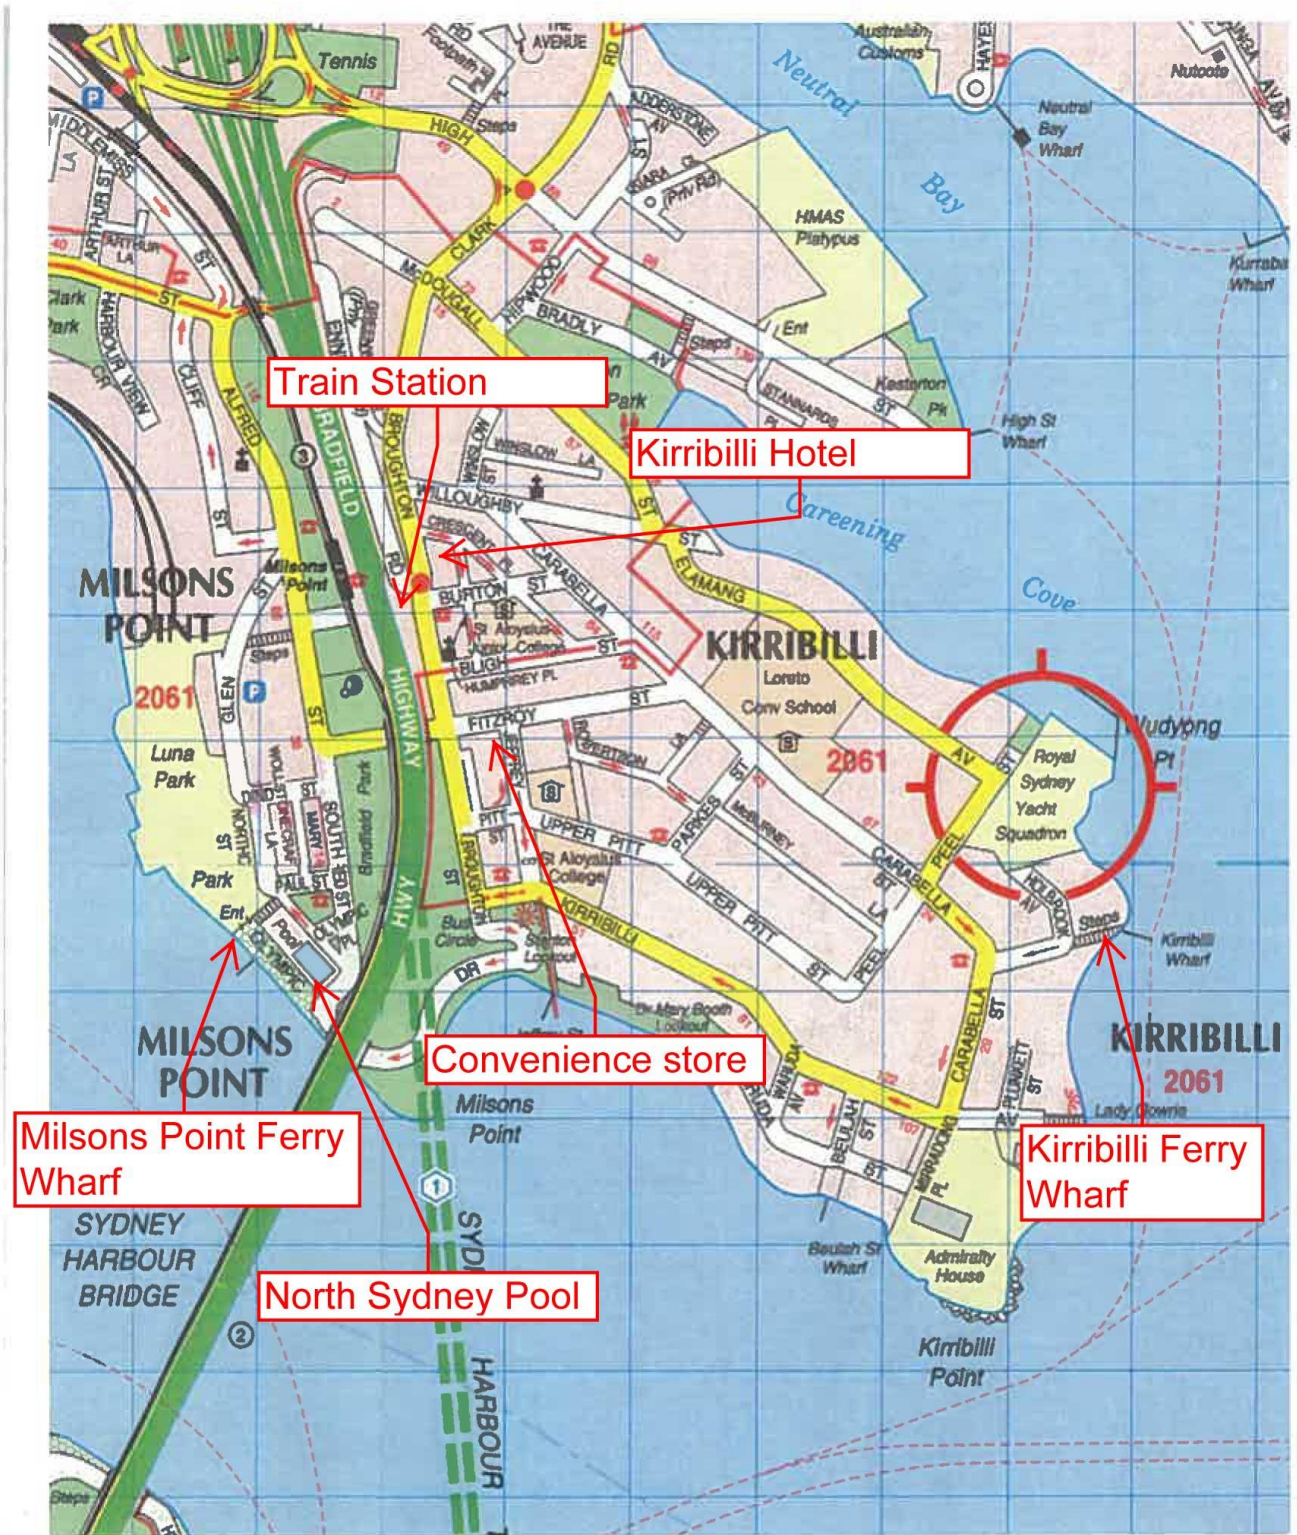

Glebe Point Road, Glebe (located in Sydney's inner-western suburbs): a diverse range of cafés and restaurants.

Norton Street, Leichhardt (located in Sydney's Inner-Western suburbs): this area is known as Sydney's "little Italy" so there are plenty of Italian restaurants to dine at and gelato bars to finish off the meal.

Darling Street, Balmain (located in Sydney's inner-western suburbs): this area has an abundance of charming old pubs with cafes and restaurants.

Campbell Parade, Bondi (located in Sydney's inner-eastern suburbs). This famous beachside strip has plenty of restaurants and cafés to choose from.
